Kravitz, U.S. District Judge, in the District of Connecticut, on December 21, 2009, to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of time served. It was further ordered that upon release from imprisonment the defendant be placed on supervised release for 48 months under the standard conditions adopted by the court and the following additional conditions:

Tracy Baldwin was released from custody on December 21, 2009, at which time the term of supervised release commenced. On August 28, 2010, jurisdiction was transferred to the Eastern District of North Carolina. Since supervision commenced, the following violations have been noted:
